

Directory of Youth Resources 2007

Information UPDATE

March 2008 Update
(Updates between January 1— February 29, 2008)

The DC Public Defender Service’s Directory of Youth Resources is published biennially. Information Updates are provided quarterly in March, June, September and December. The following information reflects changes in the Directory of Youth Resources, published November 2007.

| Chapter  | Page | Program Description  |
|--|------|--|
| I. ArrestedB. Community Supervision | 17   | Culbreath & Culbreath: Telephone number correction:(202) 889-1182, Fax (202) 889-8562  |
|  | 17   | REFAM Program replaced by:Detention Review Unit 1000 Mt. Olivet Rd NE (YSC)(202) 576-8142, (202) 576-8408Bruce Wright, Program Manager, Joseph Strong, SupervisorDetention review initiative to ensure that eligible detained youth are placed in a “least restrictive” environment as expeditiously as possible. Coordinates community based services and family support to help facilitate a “Step-Down” placement. OAG must approve Step-Down plan.   |
| II. Alternative Living                  | 31   | Trudy Wallace House (Pre-release House)1816 19th Street, NW 20010Program changed to: “ Renaissance House ” (Independent Living Residence) Maurice Shaw, Director(202) 462-8982, Fax (202) 561-462-1472Committed males (17-18). Case management directed toward helping youth become independent. Life skills education, financial planning, domestic skills (cooking, cleaning) job retention. Participants receive weekly stipend of $35. Average stay 6 months to 1 year. Referrals through DYRS. |
| III. Drug Education/ Treatment          | 35   | Evolution (Segregated unit at Oak Hill providing drug treatment)Update: Evolution is no an exclusive unit providing drug treatment.Evolution is a regular unit at Oak Hill. The unit is managed by: Michael Moore, (240) 456-5194.   |
|  | 39   | Riverside Treatment ServicesRiverside hospital on MacArthur Blvd, NW has closed. Riverside resumed outpatient services in shared space at Family Medical Counseling Services, 2041 Martin Luther King, Jr. SE 20020. Program continues to offer individual, group and family counseling, snacks and transportation. Residential services are no longer provided. Program Manager Edith Amobi (240) 723-1121. Referrals through APRA.  |